RECIPES FOR FINNAN HADDIE.
Most fish dishes are very acceptable in the spring, but particularly the salt fish. It is appetizing, and many people have a natural craving for salty food during the early spring months. The first preparation is to return to the fish the moisture which has been lost in the drying or curing. Soaking fish side down all night in just enough milk or water to be taken into it is good. Then broil as if fresh or parboil in milk or water for five minutes and then broil.

BAKED FINNAN HADDIE.
Parboil the fish; that is, allow the water over the fish to come slowly to a boil. Turn off the water and remove the skin. Place the fish in a greased baking dish and cook slowly 20 minutes, basting occasionally with melted butter or cream. Remove to a hot platter, squeeze over it a little lemon juice and shake over a good dash of paprika, and serve.

CREAMED FINNAN HADDIE.
Materials—Haddie, one cup; hot milk, 1 1/2 cups; butter, two teaspoons; flour, two teaspoons; paprika.
Utensils—Double boiler, measuring cup, tablespoon, saucepan.
Put the flour dry into the sauce pan over the fire and stir continuously until a rich even brown. Add the butter and rub smooth. Gradually add the hot milk, stirring all the time until it thickens. Turn all back into the double boiler, where the milk was heated, and add the haddie, which has been cut in small pieces. Cover and cook five or ten minutes. A yolk of egg well beaten adds both to food value and taste. Stir this in well when ready to serve.

BOILED FINNAN HADDIE.
Place fish in boiling water and simmer with a slice of lemon and a small bay leaf for 15 minutes. Remove the skin and place in a hot dish; pour over a rich cream sauce with chopped parsley or drawn butter.

HADDIE SALAD.
Haddie may be chopped very fine with a little Spanish onion, arranged on lettuce and served with a French or cooked dressing.

FISH BALLS.
Materials—Haddie, one cup; mashed potatoes, two cups; butter, one teaspoon; egg, one; pepper.
Utensils—Sauce pan, washer, egg beater, frying basket.
Boil and mash potatoes and beat until very light with butter and pepper. Parboil haddie five minutes; dry, chop very fine and well with the potatoes and the beaten egg last. Form into balls, dip in bread or cracker crumbs and put about six into the frying basket and fry about one minute in deep hot fat. They may be sauted in a little butter and other fat in a spider, if preferred.

FINNAN HADDIE AU GRATIN.
This fish may be prepared the same as for creamed finnan haddie with the addition of one-half cup of grated cheese. Turn into ramekins, sprinkle with cheese, bread crumbs and a little melted butter and bake until brown on the top.

Hints on Hair Health.
If you use our treatment, we will either stop your hair from falling or pay for the treatment ourselves.

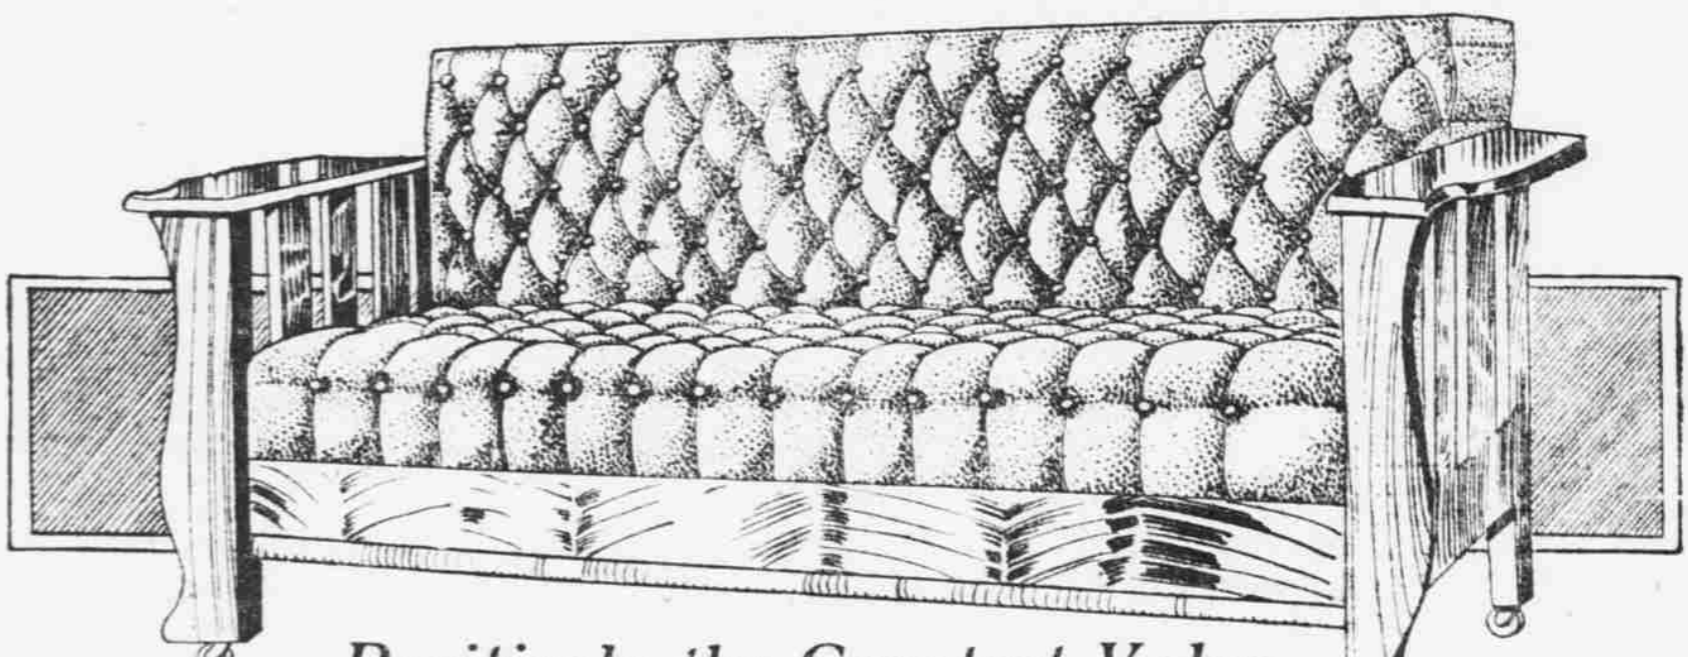

Dandruff is a contagious disease caused by a microbe, which if not removed causes baldness. This microbe often comes from a comb or brush belonging to someone else. If you are troubled with dandruff, itching scalp, falling hair, or baldness, we believe that Rexall's "93" Hair Tonic will do more than anything else to remove the dandruff, destroy the germ, make the scalp healthy and stop falling hair, and if there is any life left in the roots, also promote growth of new hair.

We believe that probably 65 per cent of the cases of baldness could be overcome if people would only use Rexall's "93" Hair Tonic for a reasonable time, as directed. We don't want you to take our word for this. We want you to test the merits of Rexall's "93" Hair Tonic at our risk. If you use it and it does not give satisfaction, just come back to us and tell us, and we will immediately hand back to you the money you paid for it. You promise nothing, sign nothing and your mere word will be taken for it. We are dependent upon your confidence and patronage, and we would not make these claims, or make this offer if we did not believe that Rexall's "93" Hair Tonic is the very best hair preparation you can use. Two sizes of bottles, 50c and $1.00. You can buy Rexall's "93" Hair Tonic in this community only at our store.
